

Good-morning Team Reps, Trust all is well and looking forward to a fruitful week ahead.

There was a considerably higher turnout in game 2, despite a number of forfeits across several divisions. We hope this is merely a numbers issue, as employees are still on vacation and should be back in full swing next week.

Otherwise, the highlight of the day was seeing a number of teams take the courts in their new netball uniforms, which brightened the day. The sponsors' contributions are always appreciated.

For your information, the ladder will be released this week once the points have been amended. Several queries about games in the first round of several divisions have been addressed. Following yesterday's games, the executives received a few more inquiries, which will be reviewed and responded to accordingly.

The PCNC Executives are pleased to announce that the Umpiring and Coaching Accreditation has commenced. The first session is started at 5pm at SJGS Level 4 and ended at 7pm.

Ms Richanda Kassman is the lead Trainer providing pathways into assisting what is required on the pathway to be accredited a C Badge Umpire. Ms. Kassman encouraged participants to go online to learn more with commitment.

She also reiterated that it was essential for PCNC to continue to make space for umpires to improve their game management and made a point that the Association should initiate a pathway on umpire development.

The President and her Executives were present at the event and this is an indication that leadership is also invested in strengthening PCNC Game Management and Competition.

For the 3 days, Ms. Kassman encouraged the participants to be open to ask for clarification and to communicate with each other.

The President concluded the first session by thanking the participants and mentioning that they are privileged to be attending the sessions and to be braced with the experience of Ms. Kassman as a former Pepes and an emerging leader in Netball Management and Development currently based in Brisbane Australia.

The registered participants for the Coaching sessions on Monday and Tuesday commencing are required to attend all sessions. This is a prerequisite requirement to be assessed and accredited by the Lead Trainer/Assessor Ms. Richanda Kassman. This is the first step of the partway to Accreditation as a coach in training.

All companies who registered participants for the Coaching sessions please ensure your representatives are attending on time for these two days. Venue for this session is at Sir John Guise Stadium in two sessions (ie 12pm to 1pm and 5-7pm). Participants are urged to be on time to get the best of these training sessions. We wish participants all the best in this journey to be an accredited coach.

We look forward to the umpires and coaches giving you a better experience after completing the clinics.

Thank you and blessed working week.
